

LAST MAN STANDING - 2022/23 - GAME 1 - ROUND 7
1st to 3rd October

Back to normality this weekend after the postponements and the international break. A reminder that we are down to the last 10 players for Round 7! Six different teams have been picked in this round. Nobody could pick Arsenal or Tottenham. Fulham remain the only team unselected at this stage!

In the Saturday 3pm games, Bournemouth welcome Brentford down to the Vitality stadium - Pat Boddy fancies Brentford for a win in this one. Tracy Newman was the only player left who could pick Liverpool and she picks them as they take on Brighton at Anfield. In the tea-time game, West Ham host Wolves at the London Stadium - Jackie Milton, Jenny Rothwell, Lynn Storer, Phil Haigh and Steve Smith are hoping that the Hammers can kickstart their season with a win.

On Sunday afternoon it's the first Manchester derby of the season, at the Etihad - Rich Clayton is the only player left who can pick City and he reluctantly plays that card! In the later game, Leeds face Aston Villa at Elland Road - Ken Nelson has picked the Yorkshiremen to win this one.

On Monday night, bottom of the table Leicester have a visit from Nottingham Forest to the King Power stadium - Peter Donnelly is hoping the Foxes get a win.

Deadline for Round 8 will be noon on Friday 7th October.
