

LAST MAN STANDING - 2022/23 - GAME 2 - ROUND 2

29th to 30th October

On Saturday, in the lunchtime game, Leicester welcomed Manchester City to the King Power stadium - Carl Jackson and Katie McQuade had picked Pep's team to win and they go through after a 1-0 win. In the 3pm games, Tottenham travelled to the Vitality stadium to play Bournemouth - Carl Jackson Snr, Joel Wilkinson and Ken Nelson had picked Spurs and they go through with an injury time winner in a 3-2 win. Brentford faced Wolves at the Gtech Community stadium - James Grierson had picked the Bees and he bows out after a 1-1 draw. Brighton welcomed their old manager back to the Amex as Chelsea headed there - Tracy Newman was hoping Graham Potter could get one over his old club but he was on the end of a 4-1 defeat and she goes out. Newcastle entertained Aston Villa at St James' Park - Chris Grierson, Craig Milton, Dave Brown, Nick Breakspear and Pauline Jackson were hoping that there was no new manager bounce for Villa as they picked the Toon and a 4-1 win for the Magpies sees them through. In the tea-time game, Fulham played Everton at Craven Cottage - Dave Phillips had opted for the Londoners and he exits after a goalless draw. In the late game, Liverpool faced Leeds at Anfield - 9 players were hoping there was no repeat from last week from the Reds but a 2-1 win for the Yorkshiremen sees them go out (you were all warned!).

On Sunday, in the early game, it was top v bottom, as Arsenal faced Nottingham Forest at the Emirates - 36 players had picked the Gunners (including 2 defaulters) - a very comfortable 5-0 win for the league leaders meant no whitewash in this round. In the later game, Manchester United took on West Ham at Old Trafford - Martin McShane had picked United (the Manc ones) and he goes through after a 1-0 win.

In total, 12 players drop out leaving 47 players still standing for Round 3.

Deadline for Round 3 is noon on Friday 4th November.
