LAST MAN STANDING - 2022/23 - GAME 2 - ROUND 3 5th to 6th November

We were down to 47 players for Round 3. 8 different teams were picked in this round.

On Saturday, in the 3pm games, Leeds faced Bournemouth at Elland Road - 7 players were expecting a win for Leeds - they got one eventually after a dramatic 4-3 win. Manchester City took on Fulham at the Etihad - 12 players had picked City and were on the brink of going out before an injury time penalty gave City a 2-1 win. Wolves played Brighton at Molineux - Dave Brown and Nick Breakspear had picked the Seagulls and they go through after a 3-2 win. In the tea time game, Everton played Leicester at Goodison Park - Ken Nelson and Park Davies had picked the Toffees and they bow out after a 2-0 defeat.

On Sunday, in the early games, Aston Villa had their 1st game under Unai Emery as they played Manchester United at Villa Park - Carl Jackson, Linda Beaumont, Nicole McNeil and Ste Matthews had picked United but a 3-1 win for Villa sees them go out. Southampton welcomed Newcastle down to St Mary's - 14 players had picked the Magpies to win here and they progress after a 4-1 win. West Ham faced Crystal Palace at the London stadium - Janet Carr, Jenny Rothwell, Martin Grierson and Phil Haigh had picked the Hammers but a 2-1 win for the Eagles sees them go out. The final game of the weekend saw Tottenham welcome Liverpool to the Tottenham stadium - despite their last two results, Pauline Jackson was backing the Reds for a win here and she didn't need to reach for the meds after a 2-1 win for Liverpool.

10 players drop out, leaving 37 players still standing for the last round before the World Cup break.

Deadline for Round 4 (and the last round before the World Cup break) is noon on Friday 11th November.
