

LAST MAN STANDING - 2023/24 - GAME 3 - ROUND 4

3rd-5th February

74 players were still standing for Round 4. Ten different teams were picked in this round - every game featured.

This round kicked off with a Saturday lunchtime game as Everton hosted Tottenham at Goodison Park - Martin Brown and Tony Raybould had picked Spurs but they go out after a last minute equaliser, resulting 2-2. In the 3pm games, Brighton had their derby with Crystal Palace at the Amex - Adele Jones, Dave Nicholls, Jackie Milton and John Roberts had picked the Seagulls and they eased through with a 4-1 win. Burnley took on Fulham at Turfmoor - Craig Milton had picked Fulham but he goes out after another late equaliser and a 2-2 draw. Newcastle faced Luton at St James' Park - 46 players had picked the Toon but a remarkable 4-4 draw sees them all drop out. In the tea-time game, Sheffield United welcomed Aston Villa to Bramhall Lane - Damian Walsh, Gemma Jackson, Hayley Beaton and Lynn Storer had picked the Villa. No pick was submitted by Dave Latham so he got Villa by default. They go through after a 5-0 win. On Sunday, Bournemouth hosted Nottingham Forest at the Vitality Stadium - 7 players had picked the Cherries but a 1-1 draw means they exit. Chelsea faced Wolves at Stamford Bridge - Dave Goodall, Gary Storer, Jenny Rothwell and Paul Barlow had picked Chelsea and a 4-2 defeat sees them drop out. Manchester United played West Ham at Old Trafford - Joey O'Brien, Robin Horsler and Steve Smith had picked United (the Manc ones) and they go through with a 3-0 win. In the 4.30 game - Arsenal welcomed Liverpool to the Emirates - Trevor Faulkner had picked the league leaders (it later transpired he had been looking at the wrong set of fixtures!!) and he goes out after a 3-1 win to the Gunners (although as a City season ticket holder, I don't think he we'll be too disappointed. On Monday night, Brentford played Manchester City at the Gtech Community stadium - Kenny Rogers had picked City and he goes through after a 3-1 win.

61 players drop out after this round, leaving just 13 players still standing. Deadline for Round 5 is 12pm on Friday 9th February.
