

LAST MAN STANDING - 2023/24 - GAME 5 - ROUND 4

27th-28th April

42 players were still standing for Round 4. Six different teams were picked in this round - one of them by default.

On Saturday afternoon, the bottom three teams all featured in the selections, in the 3pm games. Manchester United entertained Burnley at Old Trafford - Jason Harrison, Kevin Murphy, Owen Donnelly and Steve Watson had picked United but a late Burnley equaliser means they drop out after a 1-1 draw. Newcastle took on Sheffield United at St James' Park - thirty players had picked the Magpies. After an early scare of going a goal down, they eased through with a 5-1 win. Wolves hosted Luton at Molineux - Andrew Wilkinson, Olly Woodward and Tony Smith had picked Wolves in this one and they go through with a 2-1 win. In the Saturday night game, Aston Villa played Chelsea at Villa Park - Pat Boddy had picked Villa but a Chelsea comeback saw him drop out after a 2-2 draw.

On Sunday, the early game saw the north London derby as Spurs faced Arsenal at the Tottenham stadium - no pick was received from Neil Taggart so he got the Gunners by default and goes through after a 3-2 win. In the later game, Nottingham Forest welcomed Manchester City to the City Ground - Dan Milton, Dave Nicholls and Neil Metcalf were expecting a City win and they were rewarded with a 2-0 win.

5 players drop out at this stage - leaving 37 players still standing for Round 5. Deadline for Round 5 is 12pm on FRIDAY 3rd May.
