

LAST MAN STANDING - 2023/24 - GAME 5 - ROUND 5

3rd-6th May

37 players are still standing for Round 5. Somewhat surprisingly (well, to me anyway!), nine different teams have been picked in this round - only the Brentford v Fulham game does not feature.

We kick off with a Friday night game this week as Luton entertain Everton at Kenilworth Road - Neil Taggart is hoping for a 4th consecutive win for the Blues. On Saturday afternoon, in the lunchtime game, Arsenal take on Bournemouth at the Emirates - 20 players have picked the Gunners. In the 3pm games, Brighton welcome Aston Villa to the Amex - Gary Storer is hoping Villa continue their push for a top 4 finish. No entry was received from Peter Donnelly so he gets Villa as his default selection. Burnley take on Newcastle at Turfmoor - Andrew Wilkinson and Ollie Woodward have picked the Magpies. Sheffield United face Nottingham Forest at Bramhall Lane - Dan Milton, Jack Horsler and Pauline Jackson have picked Forest to put the final nail in the Blades' coffin. In the evening game, Manchester City play Wolves at the Etihad - Josh Wignall has picked City.

On Sunday, a London derby sees Chelsea host West Ham at Stamford Bridge - Joey O'Brien, Tony Raybould and Tony Smith have gone for the Blues. In the later game, Liverpool play Tottenham at Anfield - Jackie Milton, Kenny Rogers and Steve Smith have picked the Reds.

Finally, on Monday night, Crystal Palace welcome Manchester United to Selhurst Park - Ewan White has picked the Eagles here.

Ewan White, Neil Taggart and Josh Wignall each have a chance to win the pot outright - although that would take one hell of a lot of exceptional results!!
