

LAST MAN STANDING - 2023/24 - GAME 5 - ROUND 8

17th-18th August

30 players had opted to continue this game in their quest for a reduced pot of £932. As the new season kicked off, the remaining players couldn't pick any Manchester City players. Four different teams were picked in this round - with just one player having a chance of winning the pot in this round.

The new season kicked off on Friday evening as Manchester United welcomed Fulham to Old Trafford - a tough set of fixtures saw twenty-two players putting their faith in last season's FA Cup winners and they were probably all cursing their pick until the 87th minute when a late winner saw them progress with a 1-0 win.

On Saturday, in the lunchtime kick off, Liverpool made a trip to Portman Road to take on newly-promoted Ipswich - Andrew Wilkinson, Dave Brown, Gemma Jackson and Neil Metcalf were hoping that the Arne Slot era started with a win and a 2-0 win saw them through. In the 3pm games, Everton faced Brighton as they started their last season at Goodison Park - Kenny Rogers had picked the Toffees but a 3-0 defeat sees him drop out. Newcastle also took on a newly promoted team as Southampton headed upto St James' Park - Dan Milton, Dave Nicholls and Tony Smith had picked the Magpies and a 1-0 win was enough to see them through.

Deadline for Round 9 is Friday 23rd August at 12pm.
